Girls Lacrosse Elite Camp

Archbishop Spalding High School

About the Camp

Overview

This camp is intended for the incoming Spalding freshman with experience in the game. We will cover all aspects of the Spalding signature Motion Attack and all five defensive sets. Players will leave with a very developed understanding of the game on both sides of the ball. Concepts will include the use of picks, screens, stacks, muddles, individual attack moves, double teams, body checking, off-ball defense, transition, fast break, slow break, man defense, zone defense, and all team offensive and defensive sets. We will accept rising 8th graders with prior approval from the Camp Director. This camp is NOT for beginners.

What to Bring

Campers must provide their own equipment. Field players are required to bring their own stick, mouthpiece, goggles, cleats, shoes, and any other safety equipment needed.

Goalies must bring their own helmet, chest protector, mouthpiece, gloves, stick, shin guards, cleats, shoes, and any other safety equipment needed.

Although we will have water onsite, we strongly recommend bringing plenty of water as well.

Campers should also bring a bag lunch.

Camp Staff

Camp Director

ASHS Head Coach Moira Leavitt brings a wealth of experience having coached girl's lacrosse teams and camps for over 20 years. Coach Leavitt's tenure includes Head coach of Div I Villanova University, 6 years at the helm of the United States Naval Academy's Women's Club team where she amassed a 112-19 record as well as several High School programs: Catholic (VA Beach), Rancho Bernardo (San Diego) and Seton Keough (Baltimore MD). She was twice named the US Lacrosse WDIA National Coach of the Year and was honored by Governor Ehrlich with the Mid-Atlantic Sports Alliance's Sportsmanship of the Year Award for 2005. She has coached 23 All-Americans and two HS Tewaaron recipient. She was recently honored with the BeeBee Castro Award by Anne Arundel County Recreation and Parks for sportsmanship, positive coaching and creating opportunities for young women in sports. Currently the President of Integrity Lacrosse, a local grassroots youth club program, Coach Leavitt has a long record of attaining immediate results from players of all abilities.
